An amendment in relation to the pay of gauges being under consideration, Mr. STPHER, of La., took occasion to assail the distillers of Recuesty and Ohio, charging that, finding their heme market affected by Dio Lewis and the crussders, they had secured a revenue officer to go to New Orleans and, backed by soldiers, closed up the distilleries there that they might have the benefit of the New Orleans market.

Mr. O'ERIEM, o' Md. advocated the adoption of an amendment, striking out the clause reducing the pay of gaugers to a per day. He showed that under the law as it exists at present, giving them §7 a day, those officers were not adequately paid.

The amendment was rejected.
